

Seminar Series at the Institute for Historical Research

Programme 2017-8

Venue: Senate House, North Block, 1st floor: Professor Olga Crisp Room N102

Time: Wednesdays 5.30 pm

Autumn term

- Wednesday 4 October 2017 'At Home in the Metropole: Reading Domesticity in Contemporary Migration Fiction in Britain' Lucinda Newns (Queen Mary University of London)
- Wednesday 1 November 2017 'Street Play, Dark Stairs and Georgian Beds: Making the Tenement Museum Dublin Project' Ellen Rowley (University College Dublin and Tenement Museum Dublin)
- Wednesday 6 December 2017 'Enchanting the Ordinary: Household Christmas Light Displays' Steve Millington (Manchester Metropolitan University)
- Note: Venue change Geffrye Museum of the Home
136 Kingsland Road
London E2 8EA

Spring term

- Wednesday 10 January 2018 'Re-assembling the home through new work-home relations' Darja Reuschke and Annabelle Wilkins (University of Southampton)
- Wednesday 7 February 2018 'Illuminating Homely Atmospheres' Mikkel Bille (Roskilde University)
- Wednesday 7 March 2018 'How do we categorise spaces? Georges Perec vs. town planning 1974' Anna-Louise Milne (University of London Institute in Paris)

Summer term

- Wednesday 2 May 2018 Gregory Salter (Birmingham University) on 'Home, migration, and masculinity in the art of Francis Newton Souza'.
Note: Room change 2nd floor, Peter Marshall Room N204
- Wednesday 6 June 2018 'Pets in the Home in England and Wales, 1837-1955' Jane Hamlett (Royal Holloway University of London)