

Studies of Home
Seminar Series at the Institute of Historical Research

Programme 2018-19

Venue: North American History Room, 2nd floor, IHR, North Block, Senate House

Time: Wednesdays 5.30 pm

Autumn term

Wednesday 3 October 2018 From Street Prayers to 'Hotspots': Migrant People and Making 'Home' in the Street in Paris
Anna-Louise Milne (University of London Institute in Paris)

Wednesday 7 November 2018 Eco-homes as change agents: relational home-making
Jenny Pickerill (University of Sheffield)

Wednesday 5 December 2018 The egg-box cot: repurposing the working-class home, 1847-1914
Vicky Holmes (Queen Mary University of London)

Spring term

Wednesday 9 January 2019 The scientific housewife: performance and material culture in the middle-class kitchen, 1870-1914
Katie Carpenter (Royal Holloway University of London)

Wednesday 6 February 2019 Mismatching clothes for home: Black Muslim women in Britain
Azeezat Johnson (Queen Mary University of London)

Wednesday 6 March 2019 Beds, boudoirs and bugs: getting comfortable in the country house bedroom, c.1750-1820
Jon Stobart (Manchester Metropolitan University)

Summer term

Wednesday 1 May 2019 Religion and the life cycle in London homes, 1600-1800
Emily Vine (Queen Mary University of London)

Wednesday 5 June 2019 Gendered spaces? Dynasty and domesticity in the English country house, 1750-1850
Ruth Larsen (University of Derby)

Convenors: Alison Blunt (QMUL) and Sonia Solicari (The Geffrye Museum of the Home) – co-directors of the Centre for Studies of Home

Co-convenors: Victor Buchli (UCL), Jane Hamlett (RHUL) and Sara Pennell (Greenwich)

For more information, please email studiesofhome@qmul.ac.uk, follow @studiesofhome or visit www.studiesofhome@qmul.ac.uk.