Centre for Studies of Home Postgraduate Study Day 2019
Room GC204 (in the Graduate Centre), Queen Mary University of London,
404 Bancroft Rd, Bethnal Green, London E1 4DH

Wednesday 13 November 2019, 2pm – 5pm

Programme

2.00 – 2.10 Registration

2.10 – 2.20 Welcome and introduction to the afternoon (Alison Blunt, QMUL)

2.20 – 3.00 Paper Session 1

‘A Sort of Public Living Room’: Spreading Racist Domesticity in 1950s Los Angeles.
Vincent Chabany-Douarre, Kings College London

Home, sweet-squat home: exploring migrant homemaking inside a squatter movement.
Shabna Begum, QMUL.

3.00 – 3.40 Paper Session 2

Home and Belonging in the British Atlantic World, c.1750 – 1830.
Elyse Bell, Queen’s University, Kingston, Ontario, Canada, currently a visiting Research Associate at QMUL.

Ring the bell softly; there is crape on the door – death in the 19th century home.
Dilara Scholz, Royal Holloway, University of London.

3.40 – 3.50 Tea/Coffee

3.50 – 4.30 Paper Session 3

Shakespeare’s Lost Interiors: social identity and decoration in the lesser gentry house in Tudor/Jacobean England.
Alexandra Hewitt, University of Birmingham.

The role of sound and soundscapes in the domestic sphere of the Palazzo Medici.
Thomas Vaughan, Warburg Institute, School of Advanced Study, University of London.

4.30 – 5.00 The Geffrye Museum of the Home
Sonia Solicari (Geffrye Museum of the Home)

Centre for Studies of Home
Alison Blunt (QMUL)

Close